The Harvard BlackLetter Law Journal is published annually by Harvard Law School students.

Editorial Policy: The Harvard BlackLetter Law Journal is committed to publishing manuscripts that critique traditional constitutionalism and promote civil rights. Specifically, the Journal focuses on legal issues of particular importance to African Americans and other status minorities. The Journal has adopted an interdisciplinary approach to the law and includes articles and essays addressing social and economic issues that affect the exercise of legal rights and privileges. We invite and respect provocative discussion spanning the entire ideological and political spectrum.

Submissions: The Journal welcomes the submission of manuscripts prepared by law school or other faculty, students, and practitioners. Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate, typed, double-spaced, and with a diskette if possible. Footnotes should comply with A Uniform System of Citation (17th ed. 2000). Unpublished manuscripts will be returned only if accompanied by a self-addressed postage-paid envelope. All manuscript correspondence should be addressed to the Articles Editor at the address above. The Journal does not accept submissions via e-mail.

Subscriptions: Subscription rates for the 2004 volume (Volume 20) are $19.00 domestic; $22.00 foreign surface mail ($23.00 to Canada); $28.00 foreign airmail. All correspondence concerning subscriptions should be addressed to: Subscriptions Manager, Publications Center, Harvard Law School, 1541 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138, (617) 495-3694. E-mail: ssulliva@law.harvard.edu. Unless otherwise requested by the subscriber, the Journal is mailed at bulk rate. For some overseas subscribers, delivery via air mail may be more reliable than standard surface rate service. Claims for missing issues of Volume 20 will be honored only until January 2005.

Back Issues: Past volumes are available exclusively from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, NY, 14209, 1-800-828-7571, wsheinco@class.org. Contact William S. Hein & Co. for information on prices for bound volumes.

Permission to Copy: The articles in this issue may be reproduced and distributed, in whole or in part, by nonprofit institutions for educational purposes including distribution to students, provided that the copies are distributed at or below cost and identify the author, the Harvard BlackLetter Law Journal, the volume, the number of the first page, and the year of the article's publication.

Acknowledgments: Thanks to all the staff at the Publications Center.
